3 Proviso (a) to Section 59 of the Municipal Act No VII of 1906 exempts from municipal taxation, any building or part of a building ordinarily used for charitable purposes

4 It is perhaps not the duty of the Municipal Council hitherto exempted the from paying municipal taxes on the properties in question, on the ground that the premises were being used as a place of resort by the general public for receiving the benefits of the marriage rendered by the petitioner as a church

5 It is not clear why the Municipal Council have not done away with the service rendered by the petitioner as a mark of honour to his profession for the past years

6 From an extract of the Proceedings of the Municipal Council accompanying the petition, it is seen that the Municipal Council, while increasing the grant to Rs 25/- a month to the petitioner, have deprived the petitioner existing concession

Sir

With reference to our letter No P 8461/ dated 27th Enc 3 dated 27th January 1921 forwarding a petition dated 21 January 1921 from Mr Kayargadi Papanna of Akkipet and requesting to be informed under what circumstances an exemption from payment of taxes on his buildings was granted till recently and why it has now been withdrawn I have the honor to report that as Mr Papanna was doing his massage work gratituously and his services were very much appreciated by the public the Council were pleased to grant an exemption on the buildings belonging to him where he actually received patients and treated them in addition to a cash grant of Rs 10/- every month vide Resolutions dated 30-9-1914 and 28th October 1914 Copies submitted herewith,

Mr Papanna applied for an increased grant and the matter was placed before the Managing Committee who recommended that the grant may be increased to Rs 25/- a month and that the concession with regard to the exemption of taxes now allowed being withdrawn thus placing him on a level with the first class Hakims and Vydyas who are being granted a similar allowance with no concession of remission of taxes on the houses, although all of them are using their own private houses for treating their patients The matter went up be-before the Council on [illegible] and the recommendation of the Managing Committee was approved. Copies of the Resolutions of the Managing Committee and the Municipality referred to above are submitted for reference.

It will thus be seen that the Council has appreciated Mr Papanna's services and has granted a liberal increase in the cash grant to him. He has been placed in a par[illegible] to the Hakims and had also rendered valuable services to the suffering public equally with him and in all fairness to the Council the concession of an exemption of [illegible] to be [illegible]. Besides it was felt that the concession was not supported by the provisions of the Regulation.
